Biography

Kevin assists businesses and their owners in several matters such as entity selection and organization, mergers and acquisitions, employment, succession planning, and general litigation matters. Kevin also assists in representing individuals in estate planning through the preparation of Wills, Trusts, Powers of Attorney and related documents. Kevin advises clients with a focus on client-driven solutions through an attention to detail and determination.

Community Activity

An alumni of Wabash College, Kevin organizes and participates in an annual “Wabash Day” event where current students, alumni, family, and friends of Wabash College conduct community service projects for local charities, philanthropic organizations, and not-for-profit associations. Projects take place throughout the state of Indiana once a year, with activities ranging from trash removal to painting youth center facilities to home building with Habitat for Humanity.

Beyond the Office

Kevin participates in various outdoor activities such as hiking in National Parks throughout the United States and spending time with family at Adams Lake in northern Indiana and Lake Chapin in southern Michigan. Kevin is also an avid sports fan who enjoys playing flag-football, basketball, softball, and golf.
