Biography

Miranda practices in civil and business litigation and represents clients in all stages of the litigation process. As a trained mediator, Miranda is a problem solver by nature and is uniquely qualified to assist her clients in negotiations.

She primarily concentrates her practice in medical malpractice defense and represents a variety of healthcare providers including hospitals, long term care facilities, physicians, nurses and clinics in the defense of claims for medical negligence. Miranda also counsels clients in the construction industry and represents them in cases involving claims for payment, delay, construction defects and mechanic's liens.
