

Anna K. Marvin

Associate Attorney

Biography

Anna Marvin is an associate attorney who focuses her practice in health care law and business litigation.

An Indiana native, Anna grew up in the scenic Lake Shafer area. She completed her undergraduate studies in psychology in three years prior to graduating cum laude from the Indiana University Maurer School of Law.

During her summers in law school, Anna gained valuable experience by serving as a Judicial Intern for Judge Jason Thompson in the White County Circuit Court. She further honed her legal skills working as a law clerk at MacGill PC, where she contributed to complex cases and developed a strong foundation in litigation.

Anna's professional journey reflects her commitment to delivering impactful legal solutions in her areas of practice.

Education

Indiana University Maurer School of Law, JD, cum laude 2024

Indiana University Bloomington, BS, Psychology; Certificate: Clinical Psychological Science, highest distinction, 2021

Bar & Court Admissions

- Indiana, 2024
- U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana, 2025

Practice Areas

- Medical Malpractice Defense
- Correctional Facility Health Care Defense
- Health Care
- Business Litigation

Associations

- Indiana State Bar Association